Kyaaa

That's... I'm... I'm sorry...

To awaken now made it so I'm still not able to control like Rosmyn...

Does it... hurt?

Fire!

I'm really, really sorry.

Light...

What's this?

There's no need for pity.

Ah...?

Um...? Um... What?

Why...Why am I crying?

Ramia's Witch of Protection, Fourth Power: Wide Canvas

North Empire, Capital Conference Room

As everybody knows,

"erosion" began in "Seara".

Et

There was no sign. This "erosion" just started suddenly and is spreading at a very alarming speed. It has begun to affect other countries as well.

Ramia

Ruin

Run one fence element in low middle of "Seal"

Its pressure, according to sources, is was confirmed

Until one "erosion" was completely dismissed

But as Seara, people want to cross the border as a safety measure...

Wait.

Let's adjourn the meeting here today.

Ah... Ah... Ah...

What happened?

Yeah, me too.

Overflowing and horrible.

It hurts, right?

Overflowing and horrible.

Because it's her, there's a high possibility that the successor has been awoken.

It seems that her wings, or opportunity to become the next "witch" has been provided

In that case... Please report this to the Explorer.

The Witch is dead.

Ramia's Witch of Protection, Second Frost

The dead Witch of the Seventh Wind.

The Witch who disappeared earlier.

And all countries, before Rines finding the attack.

We'll try to take back opportunity by fair success or by force.

This sunset must be overture.

And the Eight must be found quickly.

*FLAP FLAP

Demand cooperation from all nations.

*SHAAAA

I have a feeling

I should go to Geere

...It's no use

Because there are no living beings there.

Nicolaland...

Forlan...

Wish We could harmonize there when...

Those day to end, it has been dried up...

*SHAA

...Still

How is that rain coming down?

It can't be true! The sky, too...

To have to lose you?
